All meals are served in our spacious Jean's Kitchen Restaurant where guests may unwind indoors near the fireplace or enjoy scenic views of the Texas Hill Country from the Mesquite Patio. Break service is provided in common areas easily accessible to the function space and refreshed throughout the day.

All menus and break services are rotational and offer a variety of fresh, local, organic and sustainable items sure to appease the taste buds of each attendee. Service for meals includes house choice of buffet or limited à la cart service based on occupancy during your group stay. Groups have the option to select specific menus or meal service style in a private event space for an additional charge.
